Ask yourself, "What are my family's financial needs and wants?"

Using the following checklist, you can determine how life insurance can meet your family's financial needs if you die. Then, your agent can discuss with you an appropriate term period that can help you provide for them.

- ◆ I need assistance to determine an appropriate amount of coverage.
- ◆ I want my family to maintain a certain standard of living in the event of my death.
- ◆ I want to minimize the burden of funeral expenses.
- ◆ I want to provide money for my child(ren)'s education.
- ◆ I want the mortgage to be paid off.
- ◆ I want to ensure my coverage is cost-effective so I can maintain it.
- ◆ I want to leave an inheritance to loved ones or a favorite organization.

How do they apply to you and your situation? Maybe this has reached you at a time where you feel as though you are too busy or have too much going on. Please do not put this off. Taking care of your family is one of the most noble things a person can do. NIA and its staff have a combined 100 years of business experience to help you understand your options.
